

RMB advises First National Bank on disposal of its India microfinance business

RMB is proud to have advised First National Bank, a market leading South African commercial and retail bank, on the disposal of its microfinance business in India to Centrum Microcredit Limited, part of the Centrum Group. This INR125crore transaction endorses our capabilities and network in the financial services sector and its ability to deliver investment banking solutions to its clients.

